

Times Square Gossip

Sunday, March 03, 2013

NEW YORK CITY'S HOT IVY RESTAURANT @ GRILL

Ivy Restaurant & Grill

944 8th Avenue @ 56th St.
New York City
212.459.9444

www.ivybarnyc.com

****

Posted by James Edstrom

Ivy Restaurant Style

Ivy is New York's newest hot spot for an after work cocktail, an intimate dinner, or a late night get together with friends. Located on Eighth Avenue between 55th and 56th Streets, the newly opened Ivy Restaurant & Grill is stationed in New York's thriving Hell's Kitchen. With meals inspired by Executive Chef Jim Hanley, Ivy's menu is in a league of its own. Enjoy the courtesy of Ivy's friendly and energetic staff, who are prepared to cater to your every dining need. At Ivy, providing each guest with a memorable and unique experience is always a top priority.

Begin your dining experience with one of Ivy's many appetizers. Including the thinly sliced flash broiled Salmon Carpacci, to Pan Seared Sea Scallops in an almond peach vinaigrette, Ivy's appetizers will leave guests eager for an entrée, char grilled sandwich or burger. Guests will enjoy Ivy's signature Grilled Cheese with soft ripened Brie cheese, mango chutney, and avocado on griddled sourdough bread, or relish in the Mixed Seafood Grill's scallops, shrimp, mahi mahi, grilled polenta, and whipped lemon pesto with lemon vinaigrette. Ivy's Farmers Chopped Salad, tossed with carrots, cucumber, watermelon radish, celery, Granny Smith Apples, sunflower seeds, chives, feta cheese, and mustard cider vinaigrette offers unique tastes for those craving something simpler. All dishes are ready to order from Ivy's stellar dinner menu.

Ivy's selections of wine and main courses have all the ingredients needed for great conversation. Mixed drink options such as the Acai Lemon Drop, Winter Wonder Blend and The Cure of Ivy – Ivy's signature drink – are a great mix to send your day into evening. Ivy's Happy Hour from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM is the best time to meet up with friends for drinks. Happy Hour specials can be enjoyed seven days a week.

Ivy Restaurant Seating

Steps away from Hearst Magazine headquarters, Ivy's interior is nothing short of chic. Guests will love the mood Ivy's décor sets for a night out on the town. The low or high top tables, private VIP area, and gorgeous sprawling bar offer the flexibility to take your evening from routine to exceptional. Exposed brick offset with neutral crown moldings create an atmosphere that encourages guests to pull up a seat at one of Ivy's chic leather chairs. Patrons can watch plays from their favorite sports team over drinks at the bar or host an intimate gathering at the cozy booth area in the back. Wooden tables, burning candles, and decorative lanterns create a warm space to enjoy time spent with friends and family.

Ivy, located at 944 8th Avenue, is open seven days from 3:00 PM until 4:00 AM.