IVY RESTAURANT & GRILL

Ivy is New York's new hot spot for an after work cocktail, an intimate dinner, or a late night get together with friends. Located on Eighth Avenue between 55th and 56th Streets, the newly opened Ivy Restaurant & Grill is stationed in New York's thriving Hell's Kitchen. Wooden tables, burning candles, and decorative lanterns create a warm space to enjoy time spent with friends and family. With meals inspired by Executive Chef Jim Hanley, Ivy's menu is in a league of its own. Guests will enjoy the courtesy of Ivy's friendly and energetic staff, who are prepared to cater to your every dining need. At Ivy, providing each guest with a memorable and unique experience is always a top priority. The selections of wine and main courses have all the ingredients needed for great conversation. Mixed drink options such as the Acai Lemon Drop, Winter Wonder Blend and The Cure of Ivy - Ivy's signature drink - are a great mix to send your day into evening. Ivy's Happy Hour from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM is the best time to meet up with friends for drinks. Happy Hour specials can be enjoyed seven days a week.
